DAY FIVE:

I hope you feel balanced between the world's prospective, the natural, the earthly, the demonic and what is godly, and eternal.

The difference between hanging by a thread and standing on the Rock is focus.

Before these lessons are over, pray God will give us each and every one FOCUS.

2. Finally,

Pray and then record below the problems you personally face currently.

Be specific.

Word you problems or challenges exactly as you see them.

If God gives you any of His prospective - please note that also.

Most important - be honest about where you are now.
