

Where do we begin to see what God wants to say to us in Jesus?

DAY ONE:

1. Read John 2: 1-11.

What role do you see Jesus taking here?

It will take some hints to help with this passage.

One of the uses for jars of purification is washing the dead.

Think about it. From what containers of death does Jesus draw forth new wine?

One more hint.

- a. Read Psalm 4:7

- b. Psalm 104:15

(This is not to encourage drunkenness?)

DAY TWO AND DAY THREE:

1. Please read the following and note source of rejoicing.
 - a. I Samuel 2:1

b. Nehemiah 8:10

c. Job 22:26

d. Psalm 5:11

e. Psalm 16: 5-9

f. Psalm 19: 8

g. Psalm 28:7

h. Psalm 32:11

i. Psalm 35:9

j. Psalm 63: 5-7

k. Psalm 97: 11-12

l. Psalm 104:34

m. Isaiah 51: 11

n. Isaiah 55: 12

o. Habakkuk 3:14

p. John 15:11

q, Romans 5: 2, 11

r. Galatians 5:22

s. Philippians 4:4

t. Philippians 3:3

u. I Peter 1:8

7. List some characteristics you desire in your perfect mate.

8. Read the following and record insight.

a. John 15: 9

b. John 5:30

c. Matthew 11:29

d. I Thessalonians 5:24

e. John 14: 31

f. Titus 3:4

g. John 1: 14

h. Romans 15:5

One more concept. We will take a preview look and digest later.

How would this union be achieved?

9. Read John 1: 29.

And finally

10. What does all this “bridegroom” talk tell you about what Christ desires
In relationship with you?

10. Think of your anticipation in the time before your marriage.

Read Revelation 22: 16-17, 20

If we grasp the Bridegroom revelation, what would be your relationship now?

What would be your attitude toward His return?
