

This week covers familiar material so be careful to look closely.

DAY ONE:

1. Prayerfully read John 10: 1-40 in one sitting.
2. Read John 10 again in another translation if possible.

DAY TWO:

1. Read John 10 and record the characteristics of a good shepherd.
2. Record the relationship between the sheep and the thieves.
3. Record the relationship between the hired man and the sheep.

DAY THREE DAY FOUR AND DAY FIVE:

- 1 .Read Psalm 23: 1-6 and record what the shepherd does for His sheep.

2. Read the following and record what you learn about the Shepherd and His sheep.
  - a. Isaiah 40: 10-11

  - b. Psalm 4: 8

  - c. I Peter 2:25

  - d. Psalm 34: 9-10

  - e. Revelation 7:17

  - f. Psalm 19: 7

  - g. Job 23: 16-17

h. Psalm 31: 3,5

i. Psalm 5:8

j. Psalm 16: 11

k. Psalm 91: 1-4,9

l. Psalm 27:1

m. Psalm 16: 8-9

n. Isaiah 43:2

o. I John 2:27

p. Psalm 27:4

q. Psalm 27:6

r. Psalm 31: 19

s. Psalm 3:3

t. Psalm 13:6

u. Psalm 65:4

v. Psalm 89:15-16

w. Psalm 103: 1-5, 8,11.17

3. It would probably help for you to know sheep cannot take care of themselves. Also, they are not very bright animals, actually they are dumb.

Think back through the lesson. Are there any conclusions you can draw.

OPTIONAL: If you have time, do some reading on sheep.